At various events between 1993 – 2004 Julia Morton-Marr, Founding President, with the International Holistic Tourism Education Centre's team have had contact with the following number of times: 8, 318, 694 students around the world; 6, 822 teachers; 28, 879 schools; influencing their greater communities 1, 553, 670 people; speaking at 90 conferences, meetings and attending trade shows; contacting or visiting countries from around the world 507 times. We have had 4186 hits on the new IHTEC website since February 9, 2004; and host four email yahoogroups which include a total of 149 teachers, organizations and educational teams involved with peace and sustainability education. IHTEC also participates in 13 other groups in peace education; tourism; recreation and leisure educators; Science for Peace; Canadian Voice of Women for Peace, and with the Council on Global Issues. We are still looking for all the individual schools around the world and their stories, which we will make into a book. Many have yet to register on the website. www.ihtec.org
